(X) NOTES:

The Court advised the Defendant of his rights. Defense counsel requested the Court to allow Defendant to remain released and to impose stringent conditions by increasing Defendant's drug tests and for him to receive additional sessions with his psychologist. She further stated that the Defendant is the primary caregiver for his parents. The Defendant addressed the Court. Government counsel recommended detention. The Court revoked the Defendant's release. The Court DENIED the Defendant's request to self-surrender tomorrow and stated its reasons.
